Welcome

On behalf of everyone at Nottingham Trent University, it is my pleasure to welcome you to this special occasion.

Graduation is a defining moment and one of the most important days in the NTU year. It is a celebration of dedication, growth, and achievement. To our graduands – congratulations. Today is a testament to your hard work, perseverance, and ambition. It reflects years of learning, challenge, creativity, and discovery. Every lecture attended, every assessment completed, and every idea explored has shaped your path to this proud moment.

Your final year at NTU has coincided with some outstanding achievements across the university. The opening of our new £45 million Design and Digital Arts building, national recognition of our apprenticeship provision, and continued success in research, sustainability, sport, and community partnership are all part of what makes NTU a vibrant and forward-thinking institution.

As our graduating class, you have played your part in that story – and now, you go on to shape your own. I hope that your time at NTU has equipped you with not only knowledge and skills, but also with confidence, purpose, and values that will stay with you throughout your life.

Wherever your next steps take you, know that you remain part of our NTU community as alumni. Our doors remain open to all our graduates around the world. Keep in touch with us, because our support extends well beyond the completion of your course.

As NTU alumni, you have access to dedicated employability support, as well as a range of exclusive events and networking opportunities. As your career gathers pace, think too of the ways in which you could inspire future generations of students by joining our Alumni and Industry Fellowship Programme, offering guest lectures and mentoring, placement opportunities, and careers guidance. Visit ntu.ac.uk/alumni for more details.

Congratulations once again – and enjoy every moment of your graduation celebration.

Steve Denton
Vice-Chancellor, Nottingham Trent University

As Chancellor, it is my honour to celebrate the success of our graduands and to share in the joy of this transformative milestone.

Nottingham Trent University is an institution I have had the privilege of serving for many years, and one that continues to inspire me with its energy, ambition, and unwavering commitment to positive change. I echo the congratulations of Steve Denton in recognising your outstanding achievements.

Over the past two decades, I have witnessed the remarkable evolution of NTU. This past academic year alone has seen us reach new heights, achieve fresh goals and increase our impact. Each accomplishment reflects the passion and resilience of our university community, and demonstrates what is possible when values and vision come together with purpose.

NTU's ideals – social mobility, inclusion, innovation, and a sustainability-first mindset – embody the very best of what modern higher education can offer. We strive to ensure every student leaves empowered, not only with knowledge, but with the confidence and responsibility to shape a better world.

As you graduate today, you become part of a vibrant, global network of NTU alumni. You carry with you not just memories, but the potential to influence, to lead, and to give back. The future holds great promise – and your role in it is vital.

Congratulations, Class of 2025. I hope you reflect on all you've achieved with pride and that today's celebration is the beginning of an exciting and fulfilling new chapter.

Sir John Peace
Chancellor
